Reading by Design
Summer Reading Program
Summer Reading Program

• The San Bernardino Public Library annual Summer Reading Program is at all four city libraries is May 22nd – July 22nd.

• Promotes reading, early literacy, and recreational activities for children and teens.

• 1,485 participants last year – goal is to register 1,600 this year.

• This year’s theme is Reading by Design
City Library Locations

• Norman F. Feldheym Central: 555 W. Sixth St.

• Dorothy Inghram Branch: 1505 W. Highland Ave.

• Howard M. Rowe Branch: 108 E. Marshall Blvd.

• Paul Villaseñor Branch: 525 N. Mt. Vernon Ave.

• Library service days and hours available at library website www.sbpl.org.
How Children and Teens Win

• Keeping track of minutes read.
• Activities completed.
• Library events that are attended.
• For each prize earned, they will also receive a raffle ticket for the grand prize drawing at the end of the reading program.
Rewards for Adults, Too

• Adults receive a raffle ticket each day that they check out books.

• The raffle tickets are in a weekly drawing at each branch and are also entered in the drawing for the grand prize at the end of the reading program.

• Adults will also receive an extra raffle ticket for attending library events.
End of Summer Reading Celebration

• There will be an ending program at the Feldheym Central Library on Saturday, July 29th at 3:00 PM, followed by the grand prize drawings.
Activities and Programs at All City Libraries

• Some of the events include a steel drum workshop, animal show, magician shows, puppet shows, and craft programs, as well as our weekly story times.
• Special summer brochure, which is available at the four city libraries.

• www.sbpl.org

• www.facebook.com/sbcitylib

• https://twitter.com/SBCityLibrary