PROCLAMATION OF THE MAYOR & CITY COUNCIL
DESIGNATING OCTOBER 6, 2017
AS
“MANUFACTURING DAY”

WHEREAS, the City of San Bernardino joins cities across the nation in recognizing October 6, 2017 as “Manufacturing Day”, a celebration of modern manufacturing meant to inspire the next generation of manufacturers; and

WHEREAS, this is the eighth month that the Purchasing Managers’ Index (PMI) has remained above the 50 percent benchmark, indicating that the Inland Empire manufacturing sector and the overall local economy remain comfortably in growth mode according to the Institute of Applied Research at Cal State University, San Bernardino; and

WHEREAS, we are proud to say there are over 170 manufacturing companies based in San Bernardino representing products anywhere from animatronics to beverages. These manufacturers employ over 3,400 people and are growing. Manufacturing is a corner stone of our economy in the City of San Bernardino and we commend and support this important cause and the businesses and organizations involved; and

WHEREAS, we salute our local educational institutions and industry organizations, for their continued efforts in developing a skilled workforce for manufacturers across the region; and

WHEREAS, we celebrate all those who proudly stand behind our goods and services made in America, and we renew our commitment to winning the race for the jobs of tomorrow.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT PROCLAIMED, on behalf of the citizens of San Bernardino, the Mayor and City Council do hereby declare October 6, 2017 as

and encourage our citizens to visit a local manufacturer and join in recognizing the value, diversity and important opportunities they provide serving in our city, as a trailblazing model for others to follow.

DATED this 20th day of SEPTEMBER, 2017.
